

FAQ for Tealium Master Services Agreement

Thank you for taking the time to review this FAQ. It was designed to provide you with helpful information about Tealium's customer data platform delivered via our SaaS offering and the accompanying Master Services Agreement that was drafted to describe unique aspects and functionality of the Services ("MSA"). This FAQ is provided for informational purposes only and does not form part of the contract being contemplated between the parties.

The Tealium Services

What am I buying?

The platform are provided to all our customers on a shared architecture, code base, and infrastructure (multi-tenant cloud). Because of the multi-tenant nature of the platform, we can't provide custom service offerings or change our policies or procedures for individual customers.

What if I purchase a private cloud instance of the platform?

Private cloud customers are not in a shared architecture but the code base and infrastructure are the same as those in the multi-tenant cloud. Similarly, we do not provide custom service offerings or change our policies or procedures for individual customers.

What am I not buying?

Tealium does not provide customized software, work for hire, deliverables owned by our customers, or bespoke software. Tealium does not provide industry-specific services or personal services.

Pricing. All costs and the payment schedule will be listed in the service order. The platform is provided on a standard "pay in advance" subscription service, with the payment based on annual volume purchased (as opposed to seats or users). If you exceed the annual volume purchased, you will be charged for "Overages" as set forth in your service order. Implementation and training costs are separate.

Why use the Tealium MSA?

Specially-crafted documents. As described in this FAQ, the platform is based on a multi-tenant "one-for-all" model. Our MSA was carefully drafted to accommodate and describe the unique features of the platform, including definitions and descriptions of our products, our security and privacy measures, our SLAs etc. We regularly review our MSA and have created a fair and balanced agreement based on customer feedback and industry accepted positions.

The Service Order contains the specifics of what Services you are purchasing, including the volume and time commitment, along with invoice schedules and payment timeframes.

When we perform implementation services, or training services, we may include a Statement of Work that contains some additional terms and details about the scope of those services.

What is the structure of the MSA?

Our MSA, together with applicable Service Orders and Statements of Work, contains the legal terms that govern our relationship, including: (i) the definitions we use to describe the platform and related services, (ii) warranties, (iii) provisions about intellectual property, (iv) confidential information obligations, (v) indemnity, and (vi) insurance.

The MSA will also include other documents as referenced or attached:

- The Service Level Agreement (“SLA”) contains our commitment to availability across our platform, and your remedies in the unlikely event we do not meet our commitment.
- The Data Security Statement (“DSS”) contains details of the technical and organizational security measures designed to protect your data.
- The Data Processing Agreement (“DPA”) contains details of our data processing commitments in compliance with applicable privacy laws and regulations.
- The Business Associate Agreement (“BAA”), if applicable, contains details of our commitments within our HIPPA-compliant environments.

Can the Tealium MSA be modified? We anticipate that customers may want to talk through our documents to understand our positions, but our expectation is that no modifications are needed to our MSA. We have carefully crafted our documents to reflect our policies and procedures while being fair and balanced to our customers. Tealium is unable to apply, for example, different security terms to only your specific account. Our indemnification and limitation of liability have been specifically balanced to reflect an acceptable risk based on the underlying transaction and we are unable to approve a higher risk level on an individual basis. Our service levels and delivery methods are standard across all of our products and we cannot change our processes or levels for just one customer. For specific changes to payment and other commercial terms, your Tealium representative can discuss available options.

settlement fails to fully release the indemnified Party from liability for the Claim or includes an admission of guilt or payment by the Indemnified Party).

11.1 Except for (i) Customer's payment obligations under Section 4, (ii) either Party's gross negligence or willful misconduct, (iii) breach of either Party's warranties under Sections 7 & 8 and (iv) Tealium's indemnity obligations under Section 10, and subject to the special limitations in Section 11(b) below, neither Party's aggregate liability for claims arising out of this MSA or its performance hereunder will exceed the amount of fees paid or payable by Customer to Tealium under the Service Order for the Services giving rise to such claim with respect to the twelve months preceding the claim.

11.2 Each Party's aggregate liability to the other Party for claims arising out of its breach of its obligations under the data security addendum or Section 6 (Confidentiality) or Tealium's breach of its obligations under Section 8.1(b) and Section 8.2. (Data Security) will not exceed the amount of fees paid or payable by Customer to Tealium under the Service Order for the Services giving rise to such claim during the twenty-four (24) months preceding the claim.

11.3 Notwithstanding any provision of this MSA to the contrary, neither Party will be liable to the other for any loss of business profits, depreciation of stock price, loss of data, business interruption, or other indirect damages arising from or relating to the Services, or otherwise under this MSA.
